Why Virtual?

We live, socialize, work and shop through a world of screens. More so now than ever. Event professionals are eager to tap into the advances in virtual trade show software in order to help business owners meet consumers where they can always be found — with their phones, tablets, and computers. Adding a virtual showroom to your marketing strategy can increase brand awareness and drive ready-to-buy consumers directly to your virtual door.

Advantages + Benefits

Expand Your Audience

It's hard to beat an event that happens from the comfort of home. Virtual events eliminate the need for consumers to travel, which widens the attendee base past the proximity to the arena.

Increase Web + Store Traffic

Virtual events seamlessly direct customers right to your website or store with the click of a button. And because your booth will stay up for 60 days after the event, enjoy the residual SEO boost.

Gain Data-driven Marketing Insights

Learn about every shopper who shows up at your booth. With advanced reporting and analytic tools, you can tailor your marketing efforts to make the most out of each virtual experience.

Interact With Booth Visitors

Just because you're not in a physical space doesn't mean you will miss out on talking with potential buyers. Your booth space will have chat and video capabilities so you can keep conversations alive.

Distribute Content Easily

Make brand data, product information, and special offers easily accessible to all booth visitors.

Refresh Your CRM

Virtual events allow vendors to add fresh leads to their sales funnel in order to nurture potential brand loyalty.

Virtual Show Marketing Beyond the Arena

Virtual events bring attendees who are not bound by geography.

Increase in Online Shopping from Q1 to Q4 in 2020

In the last few months, online shopping sales have increased, and it's no surprise. Online shopping alleviates the need for ready-to-buy consumers to travel, stand in line, and battle the crowds. Our virtual women's event will help you meet shoppers where they are — online, in the comfort of home.

Targeted Marketing Campaign

Show Management Associates deploys multiple online and physical marketing campaigns leading up to the event to potential shoppers across the entire state of Nevada. Sponsors and Exhibitors will benefit from event page social media exposure, website presence, and vendor spotlight targeted marketing.

Your virtual booth will stay online, available to shoppers, for 60 days after the event.

Features of the Booth Central Virtual Platform

Simple Platform

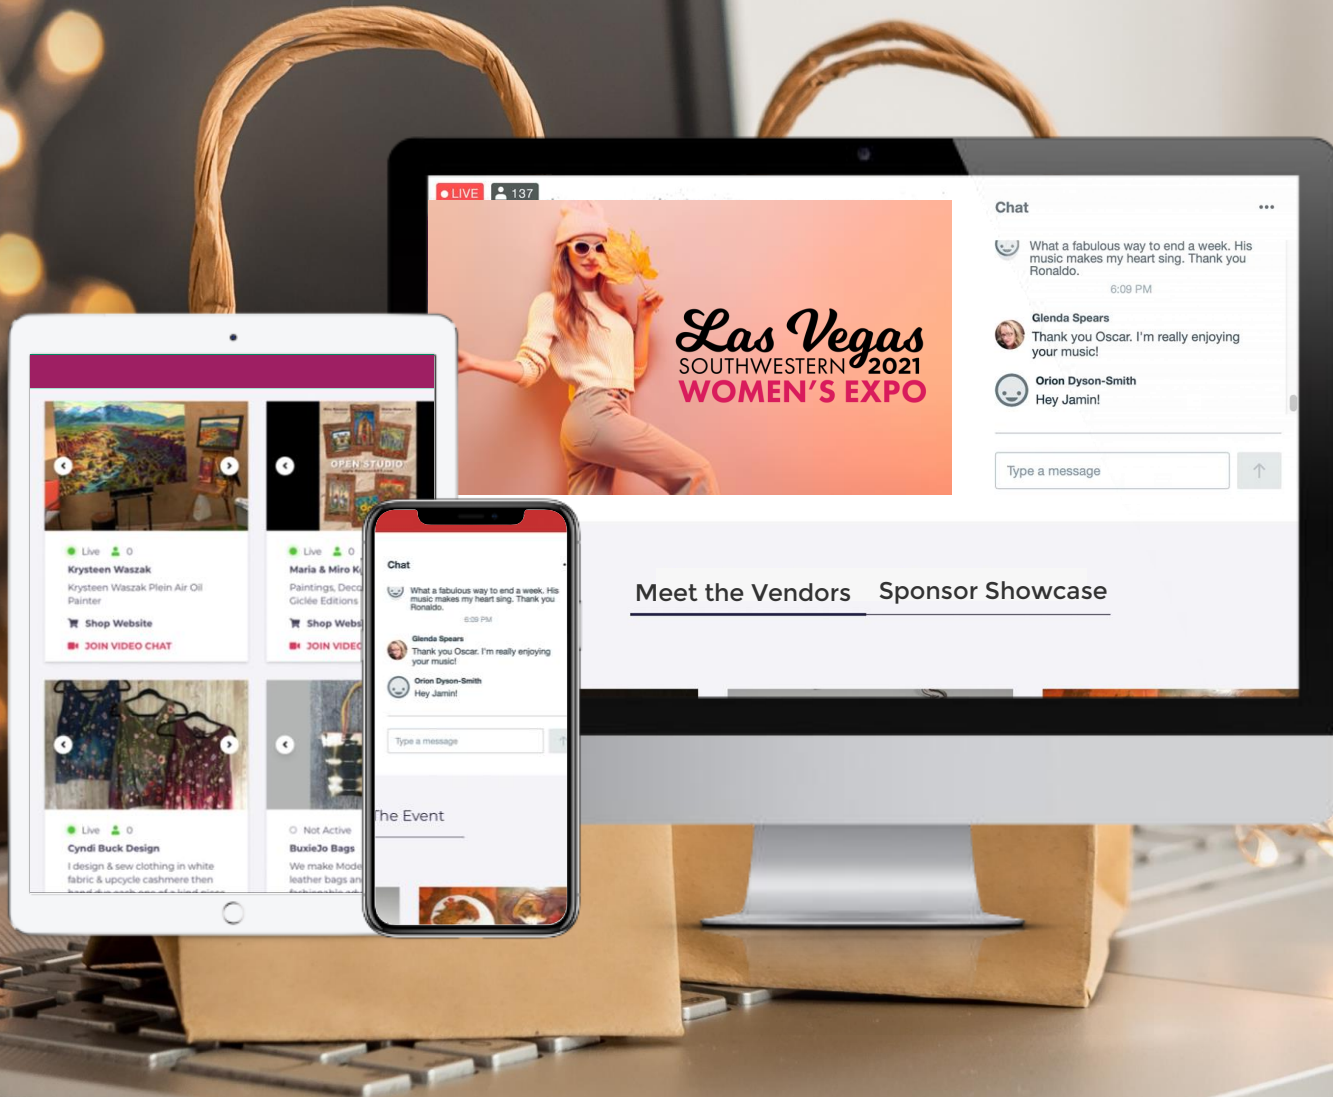

There is no need to download any programs or software. Vendors can manage their booths with their BoothCentral login information, and attendees simply visit a website after registering for the event.

Live Event Support

BoothCentral provides a support concierge for every event. This means you'll have a live person, located in America, to help the host, vendors and attendees during the course of the event. With just one click, your BoothCentral expert will provide technical support.

Secure Payment

Complete the virtual booth application. Submit with payment info. Once your application is processed, you'll be approved.

Frequently Asked Questions

How do attendees find me?

With Booth Central's easy "show room" layout, it's easy for shoppers to see all vendors. Remember, choosing a beautiful visual for your main booth photo can attract more shoppers to your booth.

Do I need to be active at my booth the entire time?

It's always a good idea to be available for the whole event, but if something needs your attention, just change your availability. Shoppers will still be able to access your product photos and website while you're away.

Do I need to set up a booth like at an in-person event?

It's a great idea to have products to show, but simple is better. A live-chat web video is often best when the presenter is close up and in a quiet, brightly-lit space.

When will show analytics be available?

Following the event, analytics will be shared within 5-7 business days of the virtual event.

Do I need specific equipment or devices to run a successful booth?

Nope! Just your mobile device or laptop. Booth Central takes care of the rest by providing an easy to access virtual space, with nothing to download.

What if I'm not tech savvy?

Show Management Associates would be happy to assist you with your booth set up. Fees start at $89. Ask your sales representative for more information.

Secure your virtual space today.
